Changing Lives

"Bob has a powerful message to share, a message that can change lives if it is heard. I would recommend having Bob speak to any group that needs to hear the message of hope, resilience, forgiveness, and healing."

~ Shelley Skarda BS, LADC, Program Director of Meadow Creek

"Thanks again for coming to Central and sharing your story with our students. Your story had a great impact on our students. They were still talking about your visit the next day! I appreciate your straight forward approach to your story. You didn't hold back anything, especially when answering the students questions. I would highly recommend you as a guest speaker. My students definitely benefited from your visit."

~ Laura Treichel, Central High School

Robert J. Allison is the author of the compelling true story, "Saved By The Prince of Peace — Dungeon To Sky". After surviving a 28-year battle with chemical dependency, including 13 chemical dependency treatment centers and homelessness; Robert J. Allison surrendered his life to Jesus Christ and began his new life of faith and contented sobriety. Robert has enjoyed 16 years of sobriety and with this new freedom, he now is helping other addicts to find peace, faith and the priceless gift of sobriety. Miracles can happen for you or your family member or your friend, just like they did for Robert J. Allison.
